Fidelity Select Global Small Cap Fund

a sub-fund of Fidelity Common Contractual Fund

Class C1 Units (ISIN: IE00B414Z927)

This fund is managed by FIL Fund Management (Ireland) Limited

Objectives and Investment Policy

- The fund aims to achieve long term capital growth by mostly investing in the shares of small-sized companies around the world.
- The fund will invest in the shares and related securities, including American depository receipts, of small-sized companies around the world on the basis of the investment manager's active selection strategy and research which seeks to take advantage of price differences. The investment manager considers small-sized companies to typically be those within the lowest 15% of market valuations on any individual market.
- The fund may also invest in other collective investment schemes, including exchange traded funds.
- The fund may also hold cash and invest in bank deposits, certificates of deposit and fixed or floating rate bonds issued by either companies or governments.
- The fund may invest in assets directly or achieve exposure indirectly through other eligible means including derivatives. The fund can use derivatives with the aim of risk or cost reduction or to generate additional capital or income, including for investment purposes, in line with the fund's risk profile.
- The fund is actively managed and references the MSCI ACWI Small Cap Index (the "Benchmark").
- The Investment Manager has a wide range of discretion over the composition of the fund's portfolio. It may take exposures that are not included in, and that have different weightings from, the Benchmark. Therefore, there are no restrictions on the extent to which the fund's performance may deviate from that of the Benchmark. The Investment Manager may set internal guidelines which, in turn, may reference deviations from the Benchmark.
- Income will be retained within the unit class to grow the value of your investment.
- You can buy and sell units on any day when the banks in Dublin and the stock exchanges in New York are open.
- Investors should consider an investment in the fund to be a medium term investment.

For full details of the objectives and investment policy please refer to the prospectus and relevant supplement.

Risk and Reward Profile

- Historical data may not be a reliable indication for the future.
- The risk category shown is not guaranteed and may change over time.
- The higher the category the greater potential for reward, but also the greater the risk of losing the investment. The lowest category does not mean risk free.
- The fund is in this category because it invests in small-sized companies around the world which may carry higher risks
- Liquidity is a measure of how easily an investment can be converted into cash. Under certain market conditions assets may be more difficult to sell.

Other risk factors which should be taken into account before investing, include:

- Investing in other investment schemes may expose investors to increased risk due to restrictions on withdrawals, less strict regulations and use of derivatives.
- Because the fund may invest in derivatives, it could lose more than the amount invested in that derivative.
- The value of the shares of small and mid-sized companies may be less predictable than those of larger companies. As a result
- it may be more difficult to sell those shares which can have a negative affect on the prices at which the fund can purchase and sell these securities and therefore negatively affect the value of the fund.
- The failure of a manual process or I.T. system, or ineffective controls in place to monitor all processes and systems, may result in financial loss to the fund.
- The failure, financial or otherwise, of an organisation that provides services such as the safekeeping of assets or acts as a counterparty to financial instruments, may result in financial loss to the fund.

For full details of the relevant risks reference should be made to the risk factors sections of the prospectus and relevant supplement.
